AN APPEAL.
MISSIONARY ENTERPRISE.
£5,000 Needed,

For the consolidation and extension of Mission work among the coloured people in Canada.

To the People of England.

The Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church of Nova Scotia—which embraces the Maritime Provinces of Canada—having through its Bishop, the Right Rev. WILLIAM B. DERRICK, D.D., appointed me its Financial Agent, and sent me forth to visit this country for the purpose of raising funds on behalf of our Canadian work, I hereby appeal to your generosity for such needed help.

The A.M.E. Church has been for years making strenuous efforts for the moral, intellectual, and spiritual enlightenment of the coloured people in those Provinces, and has, I am glad to say, achieved much success.

In order to extend these existing fields of labour, and to proceed with the absolutely necessary erection of additional Churches in Districts, greatly in want of such centres for spiritual reunion, a sum of five thousand (£5,000) pounds will be required most urgently.

I therefore, in the name of our Venerable Bishop and our Conference come to you, bearing the accompanying epistle of authorisation, as well as letters of recommendation,* in the hope that you will be induced to assist in this great and good work of extending the Messiah's Kingdom amongst our coloured brethren in Jesus Christ.

Yours, for God and Humanity,

HENRY B. BROWN,

Financial Agent.

Episcopal Church.

LETTER OF AUTHORISATION.

From the Right Rev Wm. B. DERRICK, D.D., Bishop of 8th Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

To all whom it may concern.

The bearer, the Rev. Henry B. BROWN, an Elder in good and regular standing, and a person of education and character, has been appointed as Agent to solicit assistance on behalf of the A.M.E. Churches throughout the Maritime Provinces—Churches composed of a class of worthy and industrious people of colour, but whose material possessions are scanty and poor. As this class of our population must be cared for morally and religiously, we have organised and are maintaining several congregations among them.

For this object we appeal through our Agent to the Christian public wherever he may travel for assistance in money or such material as will meet the pressing needs of a worthy class of citizens; assuring all who may assist us that all donations given will be thankfully received and promptly applied.

Extracts of letter from Rev. W. EVANS DARBY
L.L.D., Hon. Sec. : Arbitration Alliance.—Dated,
15th February, 1899.

47, NEW BROAD STREET,
LONDON, E.C.

The work the Rev. Henry B. Brown represents has surely claims upon all British people independent of their ecclesiastical position and sympathies.

All that will tend to bring our fellow-citizens of the Dominion into closer relationship, and to bind them in closer union with the mother country, must appeal in an especial sense to true hearted subjects of the Empire,

There is too a higher loyalty and it can never be said that Mission work of the Church failed to win sympathy in any section of it in Britain.

I have great pleasure in commending the Rev. HENRY B. BROWN to the sympathies of my brethren, and wish for him great success in his Mission.

A LECTURE was given by the Rev. H. B. Brown, coloured preacher of Canada, on Wednesday evening, in the Wesleyan Chapel, Brimscombe, on "Jamaica, the Isle of Springs." The lecturer gave vivid descriptions of the island, and reference was made of colonial loyalty, and to the freedom of the slaves which England achieved. He had visited Westminster Abbey and looked with deep interest on the statues of those who had laboured and fought for freedom. The chair was taken by Mr. A. Evans, of Thrupp.

A VOICE FROM CANADA.—On Tuesday evening at Castle Street Wesleyan Chapel, Stroud, a lecture was given by the Rev. H. B. Brown, a coloured minister from Canada, on the question "Why am I in England?" Mr Brown is connected with the African Methodist Episcopal Church of the Dominion and has visited England.

WORDS OF COMMENDATION.

From the Rev Joseph Johnson, Primitive Methodist Church. Stoke Newington, London, N. April 25th, 1899.

To the Rev. Henry B. Brown.

My dear Brother,—

I am taking an early opportunity of writing to express my appreciation of the services you rendered us at our Stoke Newington Church on Sunday and last evening. The large congregations which assembled on Sunday were greatly helped by your ministry, and numerous have been the expressions of appreciation of your services. I am glad you met with a generous response to your appeal in connection with your lecture last evening, though, I am bound to say, the attendance would have been much larger, and the response correspondingly greater, had it not been such a fearfully wet evening. I will only add one other observation, and that is, wherever you go in this country for a Sunday and Monday, it will be mutually advantageous. You are perfectly free to refer any Church or Minister thinking of your services, to me, for a reference.

With every good wish, I am yours sincerely,

(Signed) Joseph Johnson.

The Rev. H. B. Brown has conducted Services in all the Churches in the Great Queen Circuit, London. His pulpit ministrations as well as his advocacy of Temperance, Sunday School work, &c., have been very much appreciated, and in the homes of our people he is held in high esteem as a cultured and courteous Christian man. I have secured several engagements for him in other Circuits and he has invariably given satisfaction.

The Rev. H. B. Brown, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, addressed one of our meetings recently, and I am glad to commend him and the Mission on which he is engaged to the sympathy and support of Christian people.

From the Willesden Green Record:—On Sunday last (25th, June), the congregations of the Primitive Methodist Church were very large. The Rev. H. B. Brown. (coloured minister of the African Methodist Episcopal Church) was the preacher both morning and evening, when he delivered two excellent sermons.

The morning text was "And there was no more sea," the main points being the sea suggested change conflict, separation, &c. The evening subject was "Self-Examination," when the reverend gentleman delivered a searching discourse. On Monday Mr. Brown delivered a very interesting lecture, the subject being "The story of my life." This proved very interesting. Mr. Brown is a cultured Christian gentleman with whom it is a great pleasure to associate. This is the third time he has occupied the Methodist pulpit at Willesden Green, and he is sure of a very warm

A VOICE FROM CANADA.—On Tuesday evening at Castle Street Wesleyan Chapel, Stroud, a lecture was given by the Rev. H. B. Brown, a coloured minister from Canada, on the question "Why am I in England?" Mr Brown is connected with the African Methodist Episcopal Church of the Dominion, and has visited England for the purpose of eliciting practical sympathy for the extension of mission work among the coloured people of Canada. He bears credentials from government officials, from Bishop Derrick, from judges, and from newspaper editors, and we believe the appeal he is making is receiving considerable attention in England. Mr. W. Thompson presided over the meeting on Tuesday, and referred to the visit he paid to Canada and the United States six years ago, and the impressions then made on his mind. He criticised the strong race prejudice which existed in those countries, and which, he said, appeared to have blunted the conscience of the Churches in America. He eulogised the courage of Henry Ward Beecher, who rose superior to bigotry and prejudice, and consistently claimed equal religious privileges for the coloured race. The lecturer gave an interesting account of Canada, and its wonderful resources, not forgetting to mention Klondyke. He referred to the old days of slavery, and the liberty which fugitives from the South found when once their feet pressed British soil. Instances of his own early life were given, together with the reasons which induced him to become a minister. Then he related how he came to be chosen to visit England for the work he has now in hand, and amused the audience by describing several efforts made by him to see the Queen. Thanks to Sir Arthur Bigge, he at last succeeded in seeing Her Majesty at Windsor, and when he told his coloured bretheren this fact they would be exceedingly pleased, for no people were more loyal than they. Mr. Brown spoke regretfully of the prejudice manifested against the coloured race, and elicited applause when he declared that there was no good reason why a black man should not sit side by side with a white man in church. After a collection had been taken on behalf of Mr. Brown's mission, a vote of thanks to the chairman and lecturer was carried on the motion of Mr. Revell, seconded by Mr. Kempself. The Rev. H. B. Brown has resided in the Stroud Circuit for some months, during which period he has rendered excellent service both in preaching and lecturing. Our people have greatly appreciated his services. Personally I have found Mr. Brown a truly Christian man. I heartily commend his work to the favourable consideration of the Christian public.

DEAR SIR,

I beg to enclose for your perusal a pamphlet setting forth the objects for which I am visiting England. I would earnestly appeal to your munificence and generosity for assistance, to a greater or less extent, towards that object, so that the good work being carried on among our coloured brethren within the Canadian section of our vast Empire may, not only be maintained, but also that the building and extension scheme made necessary for the spiritual and moral developement and progress of this class of our population, be carried out to a successful issue.

Hoping to have the pleasure of your early and favourable response,

I remain, dear sir,

Yours faithfully,
